MACHINERY HERE FOR REPAIR SHOP

Large Press Drill Arrives and Will be Installed in the Roundhouse at this Place.

OTHER MACHINERY TO FOLLOW

It is Reported That Company Expects To Have Fully Equipped Repair
Shop Here.

A part of the new machinery which will be installed at the B. & O. S-W. roundhouse here has arrived, and it is understood that it will be placed in position within a short time. The machine which has been shipped here is a large press drill such as is used in several of the large shops. Some time ago it was stated that the company expected to equip the local machine shop with several pieces of machinery, so that much of the repair work could be done in this city. It is said that other machinery will arrive soon and will be installed.

On account of the heavy traffic the engines and cars are in constant use and as a result there is a larger amount of repairing to be done. By equipping the local machine shop with additional machinery much time and expense can be saved for a large amount of the repairing could be done here, which at the present time can only be done at the Washington shops.

It is not known just how much new machinery will be installed here at this time, but it is believed that the company intends to establish important machine shops at this place. As this is the division point many of the engines and cars could be repaired while here, and it would not be necessary to transfer them to the shops.

Among other machinery which it is understood will be installed is an electric lathe. Under all probability if this is sent here other machines will be installed which will make the lathe much more valuable in the work.

It has also been reported at various times that the company intends to erect a car repair shop here. At the present time many cars are repaired here and several carpenters are employed but all the work is done in the open, and much time is lost when the weather is unfavorable for the work.

Arc Lights.

The B. & O. S-W. yards and grounds about the station will probably be illuminated at night by arc lights. A contract with the new light company is being arranged.

TO FIGHT REPEAL.

Board of Charities Defends Indeterminate Sentence Law.

Some members of the legislature have announced that they will work for the repeal of the indeterminate sentence law. The State Board of Charities will make a determined fight against repeal.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, has prepared a statement of the workings of the indeterminate sentence law during the last thirteen years which shows that 5,690 persons, confined in the State Prison, the Indiana Reformatory and the Woman's Prison have been paroled during that period. Of the total number only 921, or 26 per cent. have proved delinquent during the period of their parole.

Mr. Butler points out that of the 5,515 men and 175 women paroled during thirteen years, 103, or 2 per cent. have died; 3,160, or 55 per cent. served satisfactorily the full parole period and were given final discharges; the sentences of 444, or 8 per cent. expired during the parole period, and 517, or 9 per cent. are reporting at the present time.

Paroled prisoners, it was found, have earned for themselves, during the period they were under supervision of the parole agents, an aggregate of $1,540,310.55, and they have expended $274,129.89. Many of the persons were not, before their incarceration, earning members of society.

PLAN CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS

Various Sunday Schools Are Arranging Their Annual Entertainments For Christmas.

SANTA CLAUS WILL BE THERE

Several of the Schools Are Planning to Give Cantatas.—Others Will Have Christmas Programs.

The Christmas entertainments of the various Sunday Schools are always important events with members of the schools, and as Christmas is drawing near arrangements are being made for the annual entertainments. As Christmas Day falls on Sunday, some of the entertainments will be held on Christmas eve, others on Christmas night and some on Monday evening. Several of the schools have planned for Christmas cantatas, while a number of them will have sacred entertainments on Sunday evening.

The entertainment of the St. Paul Sunday School will be held on Monday evening and will be a cantata entitled "Santa's Substitute." About fifty children will have a part in the cantata. The story is very interesting and will prove entertaining to the children as well as to the older members of the school. The story shows that Santa was taken ill a short time before Christmas, and Mrs. Santa attempts to furnish a substitute. She secures the services of the Brownies and Rainbow Fairies, but these prove unsuccessful. Just before the close Santa Claus recovers and appears just in time to arrange the presents for the children. Of course there is great rejoicing when Santa appears.

The Sunday School of the Baptist church will divide its entertainment into two parts. The primary department will hold an entertainment Saturday afternoon before Christmas. On Sunday evening the regular entertainment will be held and will be a sacred service. The subject of the entertainment is "Christ in Art, Song and Story" or "The Child Messiah." Several recitations and songs have been arranged. One of the principal features will be the stereopticon views of some of the master pieces. The members of the school will assist in the program with songs and recitations.

At the First M. E. church a cantata entitled "Seeing Santa" will be given by the Sunday School on Christmas eve. In this cantata about sixty children will have parts consisting of songs and recitations. In this entertainment the children representing several countries hold a convention at the palace of the Frost King and Queen, and while there decide that they would like to see their old friend, Santa Claus. They send the Frost Queen to the home of Santa and he accompanies her to the palace where there is great rejoicing among the children. There will be several drills by the children representing the various countries.

"Santa Claus' Arrival" is the subject of the cantata that has been arranged for the Sunday School of the Christian church. A large number of the members of the school will have parts in the program which will consist of singing and recitations.

The German Methodist Sunday School will have their regular Christmas entertainment which will be held on Christmas night. They will have a large Christmas tree and the church will be otherwise decorated. Singing and recitations will compose the principal part of the program.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will give a musical cantata on Saturday evening. During the evening a short cantata will be given and there will also be a short program of songs and recitations.

SEEK UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS

All Indiana Interurban Roads to Be Brought In Line.

FOR SAFETY OF THE PUBLIC

State Railroad Commission Has Called a Conference of the Heads of Interurban Roads With a View to Securing General Understanding Regarding Service Requirements and Conditions Which Will Prevent Wrecks.

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—Copies of recommendations made to the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction company, the Fort Wayne & Wabash Valley Traction company, the Indiana Union Traction company and the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, following investigations by the commission into recent wrecks on these lines, have been sent by the commission to the heads of all the other interurban roads in the state, together with a letter calling for a conference of these heads with the commission on Dec. 23. The call for a conference was based on conclusions reached in the recent conference of the interurban men with the commission and the governor.

Service requirements for motormen, certain working conditions for motormen when in charge of trains, the installation of approved block signal systems, the enforcement of the double order rule, the elimination of obstructions at curves, the elimination from the duties of division superintendents and trainmasters of all duties except those pertaining to actual train operation, and the relief of dispatchers from the handling of interlocking plants and from other duties except the dispatching of trains, are points made in the commission's recommendations to the lines in question.

The purpose of the proposed conference is to seek to have the recommendations apply to all interurban roads in the state, in compliance with an understanding reached in the conference with the governor.

SEEKS LEGAL DEATH

Blind Preacher Wants State to End His Misery.

Thorntown, Ind., Dec. 16.—Word comes from Battle Creek, Mich., that Thomas McKinsey Messer, a blind minister, formerly of this place, has appealed to the governors of all the states where the electric chair is in use to grant him the use of this legal instrument of death as a means of release from what he considers a living death. Messer has been blind from birth, and now fears that he is losing his voice, which will prevent him from earning a living by singing in the streets. He says that he has considered taking his own life, but believes it is wrong.

"Society has condemned me to death, and I believe that the sentence should be carried out as speedily and painlessly as possible," he says. "I would rather end all than become a state charge in a state almshouse."

Mr. Messer was educated in the Indiana state school for the blind, and became a pastor in the Disciples church. His parents lived here and were well respected. He is one of three blind children born to his parents. He was married in the early eighties to Miss Rosy Gibson, who lived in this community. A son and daughter were born to them. Mr. Messer was a pastor at Elizaville before being called to the Christian church here. Mr. and Mrs. Messer and children left here in the spring of 1898 to go to Battle Creek.

To Care For Infants' Eyes.

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—General proposals which will be set out in a bill requiring the care at birth of the eyes of all children in the state were agreed on in a meeting of committees representing all the schools of physicians in the state. It was decided that the bill to be drawn should be compulsory in nature, and applicable to all physicians and midwives.

Deweete, agent of the Erie railway, lost valuable gems and had all his clothes stolen. He was compelled to remain in bed until a tailor could supply him with a suit.

Strike Breaker's Head Crushed.

Washington, Ind., Dec. 16.—John Wolf, age thirty-six, a strike breaker at the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern shops here, was instantly killed, while at work under an engine in the roundhouse. A workman, ignorant of Wolf's presence under the engine, set the air brakes and the man's head was caught in the mechanism.

Veteran Killed by Fall.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 16.—Gabriel Myers, aged seventy-five, a veteran of the civil war was found dead in a field 200 yards from his home in Perry township, with a gash on his forehead and indications of concussion of the brain. It is thought he became dizzy and falling, struck his head against a stone.

North Carolina will act favorably on the Clark boom today. ANOTHER SIDE OF WAR STORY

Mexican Government Reports Said to Be Colored.

VICTORY FOR INSURRECTOS

The Battle of Cerro Prieto, Which Had Been Reported as a Signal Victory For the Federal Troops, is Now Said to Have Been Just the Other Way About—Regulars Reported to Be Shooting Prisoners.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 16.—Americans here are citing as evidence of proof of the manner in which the Mexican government suppresses the news of fighting in that country, the report of Consul T. D. Edwards at Juarez, Mexico, to the state department at Washington. The first reports of the battle of Cerro Prieto came from Mexican official sources and reported fourteen soldiers dead and sixty rebels killed and as many wounded. It was hailed as a great Mexican victory. Then came stories, absolutely confirmed, that a big part of the insurgents had been shot down after they had surrendered or had been taken prisoners, and still later that the battle was a complete insurrecto victory in so far as the loss of men is concerned.

Consul Edwards has wired to the state department and declared that his information is absolutely reliable that 150 Mexican regulars met death in the battle while the sixty insurgents were being killed. Mr. Edwards refuses to give the source of his information, but says it is authentic from an eyewitness. That the Mexican troops shot their prisoners is not doubted. Many Americans from that vicinity have come in with the story corroborating first reports. It is known that at least thirty-five of the sixty dead rebels were shot after they surrendered or had been made prisoners.

NOT SO, HE SAYS

Private Advices, However, Do Not Support War Minister.

City of Mexico, Dec. 16.—A dispatch from Durango says that Providencia, a small town near there, has been attacked by a force of 250 rebels, all well armed and mounted on good horses. Trouble is also reported at Dalles, near Parral. Troops are being sent against the rebels there. The minister of war, in an interview, declared that the news to the effect that the fighting at Guerrero was more or less even, was absolutely false, and declared that it was another case of the yellow press attempting to discredit Mexico. He added that the government troops had won a decisive victory, and that they are now holding Cerro Prieto. Private reports received here do not, however, confirm the minister's statements. More arrests of alleged Maderistas are being made in all parts of the republic. The prisoners are brought to this city for trial.

Rangers on Guard.

Shafter, Tex., Dec. 16.—Rangers are on their way to Presidio Del Norte, where bands of Mexican revolutionists have been threatening trouble for several days.

THEN KILLED HIMSELF

Kansas Bank Robber Wouldn't Stand Capture by Farmers.

Paradise, Kan., Dec. 16.—At his pistol's point Ira Ward bound and gagged five men in the State bank, robbed the bank of $2,500, and rode away. After a circuitous chase of five hours a posse of armed farmers mounted, surrounded Ward fourteen miles north of here. Cornered, Ward blew out his brains. All the money was recovered, the bank officials say.

Scheduled For Early Passage.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Sulloway bill for a new old-age pension law, reported favorably from the committee on invalid pensions, is scheduled to be passed at this session. It fixes the new schedule of pay as follows: Sixty-two years old, $15; sixty-five years, $20; seventy, $25; seventy-five or over, $36.

Wound Up in Asylum.

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 16.—John C. Wagner, the wealthy citizen who was arrested after he had written a message of love to an actress, was taken to a private asylum for the insane at Detroit.

Every farmer who believes in progressiveness in agricultural methods, should take a deep interest in the farmers institutes which are arranged in this county. As these meetings questions of great importance are discussed and the result of years of valuable training and experience is given by capable and competent person. Of course, every suggestion could not be used, some may even be impracticable to farming in this community, yet a few may be obtained which, if properly applied, would prove of great benefit. It is, indeed commendable that Jackson county has taken such a high rank with other counties of the state in regard to institute work, and it pays a high compliment to the progressive farmers of the county that they give their time and efforts towards making this a success.

The democrats, of Indiana are trying to land a good job for their state leader, Stokes Jackson. His friends who really feel that his political services are worthy of a good "plum," realize that now is the time to get it, for this is his last chance for awhile. At any rate Jackson feels that a job in congress that pays $6,500, is worth the effort.

The democratic leaders at Washington are finding that it is much more difficult to enact constructive legislation than it is to criticize the actions of the other party.

CASE DISMISSED

Suit Of Mrs. Emma Vogel vs. George L. Hancock at An End.

The appellate court Thursday upon the motion of the appellee dismissed the case of Mrs. Emma Vogel, executrix, against George L. Hancock, et al., which was appealed to the higher court after a hearing in this county. The suit was filed to recover a sum of money from the appellee, George L. Hancock, which the appellant alleged was due upon a note given to the late Valentine Vogel. The appellee declared that the money was a part of a future advancement and should therefore, not be paid.

Frank S. Jones, attorney for the appellee, filed a motion to dismiss the case upon the grounds that there had never been a stay of proceedings issued after the decision of the lower court. A few days ago, the appellate court overruled the motion of the appellee, but this was withdrawn and the case dismissed. As the year for appealing the case has expired, the contest is at an end.

MUSICAL COMEDY

Lyman Twins Kept Audience in Continuous Laugh.

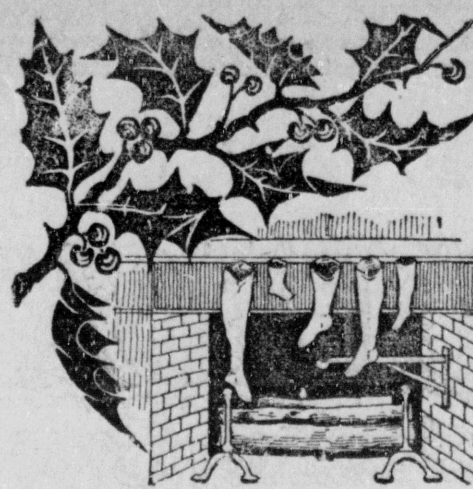

The Lyman Twins were all that has been said for them and even more. Although they have been in Seymour before with their clever comedies, never did they give a better performance than they did Thursday night. The costumes were bright and new, the girls pretty, and the music catchy. The individual work of the Lyman Twins was very good and met with the general approval of their audience. The lower floor and balcony were crowded, and the hearty encores indicated that the acts were pleasing.

J. R. Overstreet of Franklin, "The Corn King" of Indiana was in Seymour today enroute to Jeffersonville to act as judge at a corn show.

Oh! mothers in homes that are happy,
Where Christmas comes laden with cheer,
Where the children are dreaming already
Of the merriest day in the year.

As you gather your darlings around you
And tell them the "story of old,"
Remember the homes that are dreary,
Remember the hearts that are cold.

And thanking the love that has dowered you
With all that is dearest and best
Give freely, that from your abundance,
Some bare little life may be blessed.

Oh! go where the stockings hang empty,
Where Christmas is naught but a name
And give—for the love of the Christ-Child,
'Twas to seek such as these that He came.

APPLICATION TO BE MADE

Waymansville Man To Be Sent to New Castle Village.

Preparations are being made for holding an epilepsy inquest on Benjamin Beckwith, son of James Beckwith, of Waymansville, with a view to having the unfortunate young man placed in the Indiana Village for Epileptics at New Castle. This is a new procedure in Bartholomew county and there is even more red tape connected with it than with lunacy inquests.

There is a pamphlet filled with questions that must be answered by the parents of the patient, his physicians and others and the inquest must be held before the Judge of the Circuit Court. Mr. Beckwith is said to be in a serious condition and last Saturday he is said to have suffered one hundred attacks of epilepsy.—Columbus Republican.

New Delivery Buggy.

John Cummins was taken to Indianapolis this morning by deputy sheriff Van Robertson and policeman Tom Tucker. Some time ago Mr. Cummins escaped from his home and wandered several miles into the country where he was located.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

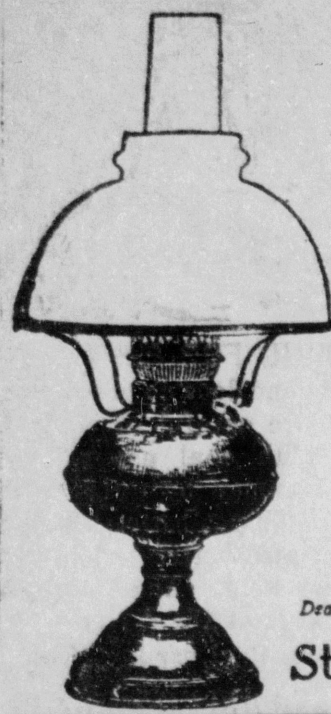

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil lamp has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflickering light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, nickel, and easily polished.

FOR THE SAFETY OF TRAVELLERS

Indiana Interurban Roads Are Brought to Time.

REACHED AN UNDERSTANDING

With the Fear of Coming Drastic Legislation in Their Hearts, Trolley Line Managers Have Agreed to the Adoption of Measures Looking to Protection of Patrons of Their Lines—Governor Marshall's Firm Stand.

Indianapolis, Dec. 15.—Concerning the installation of block signal systems and the employment of a uniform fixed standard in determining the efficiency of motormen, an understanding has been reached between the Indiana railroad commission and the interurban railroads of the state, but it is the sort of understanding that used to be ratified by a clasp of the left hands, while the right hand rested on a six-shooter.

Back of the commission stands the governor. Men interested in the present condition of affairs incline to the belief that the interurbans will make some quick and telling changes for the betterment of interurban railroading in the state, not so much through fear of the commission as through a fear that the governor may remove his hand from the arm of the general assembly.

The understanding was reached at the close of a conference held in the governor's office, when some fifty interurban railroad men, members of the commission and the governor thrashed out the interurban question pretty thoroughly. More than two hours of discussion had taken place, without much indication of progress, when the governor, with a gesture of impatience, said:

"Gentlemen, my sole purpose in calling this conference was to arrive at some conclusion by which the people of the state of Indiana may be made to feel a sense of security when using the interurban cars. If you are going to spend your time wrangling over the relative values of certain signal systems without arriving at anything definite on the question we have before us, I am inclined to wash my hands of the entire affair. I had hoped to avoid any radically restrictive legislation at the hands of the coming general assembly, which, I believe, will be found in a mood to take some unprecedented steps toward the control of interurbans unless the interurbans themselves take the initiative and remove whatever cause there exists for the people's demands that certain conditions be remedied."

One by one the companies capitulated, falling as regularly as dominoes set on end across the table. They did not surrender, and they forced the commission to grant certain terms. The commission emerged, however, with their hands on the controller.

ELECTION DAY RIOTS CAUSE INDICTMENTS

No End of Uneasiness Being Manifested at Gary.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 15.—Pedro Bastovich, a detective, was arrested at the police station by deputy sheriffs following his indictment by the grand jury at Crown Point, and is lodged in the Crown Point jail, as he was unable to obtain the necessary bail, amounting to $4,000.

An indictment has also been returned against Mike Yocovich, formerly of Chicago, otherwise known as "Dog Face Charley," whose career as a local policeman was stormy. "Dog Face," who is out on bond for attempting to kill Sheriff Grant, is now being sought by the deputies on charges contained in the indictment. The nature of the indictment, however, has not been disclosed.

True bills against persons involved in the election day riots are expected to be returned, and as a result there is considerable uneasiness here. Ole Olson, a policeman, and Bill Frazier are in jail, the former being arrested in connection with election day slugs.

FIGHTING IT OUT

Insurrectos and Mexican Troops in Battle at Guerrero.

City of Mexico, Dec. 15.—Official telegrams from Chihuahua say that a battle is now proceeding at Guerrero between the government troops and rebels. The dispatches were sent after the battle had been in progress an hour, when neither side had a decided advantage. The rebels who fought at Cerro Prieto retreated to Guerrero, where they took up a new position. It is said the revolutionists number about 1,000, about half of them equipped with modern rifles. They have no artillery.

General Navarro, after the fight at Cerro Prieto, rested his men for a short time and then pushed on toward Guerrero without awaiting further reinforcements. It is confidently expected that the government will win.

OPEN LAMP CAUSES DISASTER IN MINE

More Than a Score Killed By Explosion in Virginia.

Bluefields, W. Va., Dec. 15.—By an explosion in the Greeno mine at Tacoma, Va., twenty-two men were killed and twenty-six entombed. Relief parties with oxygen helmets and surgeons' supplies were rushed to the scene under direction of Dr. J. A. Holmes, director of the bureau of mines at Washington. The explosion is said to have been caused by an accumulation of gas in the lower levels, being set fire to by an open lamp belonging to one of the miners, but this cannot be confirmed.

Fire broke out in the mine following the first explosion, and frantic efforts were made to get some aid to the imprisoned men. The draft fans at the entrance were shattered by the explosion, so great was the force.

Immediately after the explosion Superintendent Barrowman with three mine bosses started down the shaft as a rescue party. Upon reaching the bottom they signalled for the stop and have not been heard from since. It is thought they died in the mine.

So far ten bodies have been recovered and one man barely alive was taken out, but he is not expected to live.

THEY MEANT BUSINESS

Aggrieved Wife and Daughter Demolish a "Blind Tiger."

Sullivan, Ind., Dec. 15.—Because her husband came home intoxicated and made trouble in the household, Mrs. Baldy Stewart and her daughter, of Farnsworth, a mining town three miles east of here, armed themselves with clubs, marched on the alleged source of the husband's liquor, and smashed the blind tiger and all it contained into smithereens.

The men in the place fled in haste when the women entered and unceremoniously started on their work of destruction. Bottles were smashed and their contents ran in streams over the floor. Every bit of glassware in the resort was broken into fragments, according to the report received here, and when the women withdrew finally from the field the place of business, once flourishing, was hardly recognizable.

Mexico City, Dec. 15.—Congressman Diaz Miron will probably not be tried by a committee of his colleagues for shooting at Congressman Chapital a few days ago. SHOES

DEAR SANTA CLAUS:—

Ma says you have so many little ones to please that I had not better ask for much this year and that you would be most pleased if I asked for something useful. So I ask for a pair of Educator Shoes, the kind that has room for all five toes and don't make me limp. Nellie was delighted with those red top Jackie boots she saw in Ross' window, so I am sure a pair of them would just suit her. Bud saw some Jackie leggins at Ross' that caught his eye. Papa's slippers are about wore out and I know Ma would like a pair of felt fur top house slippers. Now Santa don't forget, please. Good-bye.

JAMES A. TAWNEY

Minnesotan Says There's an Effort to Hobsonize the Country.

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

A CONSPIRACY SAYS TAWNEY

Warriors Seek to Raid the Treasury, He Says.

NATION BEING HOBSONIZED

Chairman of Appropriations Committee Declares the Object Back of War Scare Talk Is Simply to Bolster Up Military Enthusiasts' Demands For Larger Appropriations, and Interesting Developments Are Hinted At.

Washington, Dec. 16.—In official circles the sensation over Secretary Dickinson's suppressed report on the unpreparedness of the national defense has become more acrimonious. Representative Tawney of Minnesota, chairman of the house appropriations committee, practically charges that a conspiracy exists between the various departments and military enthusiasts in congress to create a nation-wide sentiment in favor of big appropriations for army and navy purposes. Mr. Tawney's statement explains the activity of the congressional leaders, supported by President Taft, in bringing about the suppression of the so-called sensational Dickinson report.

"The war department," said Mr. Tawney, "has joined in an effort to Hobsonize the entire country."

The Tawney statement is only one of several interesting developments. The White House announced that no report whatever would be sent to the house in response to the McLachlen resolution calling for a statement of the condition of the national defenses. Later an announcement was made that another report—the third in the series that have been prepared by Secretary Dickinson—will be sent to the house. This announcement was made by Secretary Dickinson himself after he had a talk with the president. It is supposed that Mr. Dickinson objected to the embarrassing situation in which he would find himself if he finally had to abandon his intention of sending in a report after two unsuccessful trials. Accordingly he and Major General Wood, chief of staff, immediately settled down to the drawing of a third statement on the condition of the national defenses. This report will eliminate the data and opinions of a sensational character that were objected to in the other reports, and apparently will be entirely harmless.

While Mr. Tawney was talking Hobson and conspiracy and the White House was holding conferences, the military enthusiasts in the house, notably those from the Pacific coast, were airing their opinions on the country's military forces and the doubtful prospects of the future. Representative McLachlen, the author of the resolution that has stirred up the trouble, was quoting General Chaffee, Admiral Bob Evans and other authorities of equal prominence on views which they had confided to him on the dangers from the "yellow peril." It was the talk of these men, according to Mr. McLachlen, that inspired him to introduce his troublesome resolution.

"There is something peculiar about this matter," said Mr. Tawney. "I do not like to use the word 'conspiracy' in connection with it, but there may be interesting developments when the whole story is told."

"This effort that has been made to get the report of the secretary of war before the American people is simply a part of a propaganda on the part of our military enthusiasts to secure support for larger appropriations. Hobson, for the last four or five years, has attempted to scare the American people by preaching the danger of a Japanese invasion, and now the war department has joined in with an effort to Hobsonize the whole country."

Victims of Religious Mania.
Muncie, Ind., Dec. 16.—Afflicted by religious mania, said to be due to close attendance at revival services and prayer meetings in a church near their home, four of the six members of the family of John McCormick, a prosperous farmer living five miles north of Muncie, have been placed under surveillance. A lunacy commission has already declared Miss Mary McCormick, aged twenty, a daughter, insane.

Old Fighter in Wreck.
Seattle, Dec. 16.—Tommy Burns former heavyweight champion, was put out of the fighting class when he suffered severe injuries to his head, right arm and right knee in a collision on the Seattle-Tacoma interurban railroad. Some of the small bones of his right arm were also fractured.

The Standard Again on Trial.
Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 16.—The case of the state of North Carolina against the Standard Oil company, in which the defendant is being prosecuted under the new state anti-trust law, is on trial here. The law has never been tested before, and a hard fight is being made.

Sentence Was Deferred.
Mobile, Ala., Dec. 16.—Six men charged with intimidating or night riding B. S. Comstock, a government homesteader, whom they tried to make leave Baldwin county, were declared to be guilty and sentence was deferred pending notice of an appeal.

Ohio Trust Buster Passes Up Place in Customs Court.

© 1910, by American Press Association.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Wade H. Ellis, of Ohio, has declined an appointment to a judgeship in the customs court of appeals tendered him by President Taft, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Judge William H. Hunt to the commerce court. Mr. Ellis thanked the president for the offer, but said he thought he had better continue at his practice.

ANONYMOUS LETTER GIVES DIRECT CLUE

Notorious Black Hand Held For Atrocious Crime.

Rome, Dec. 16.—An anonymous letter has led to the discovery of blood-stained clothing, broken knife blades and daggers which were hidden on the seashore at Bellaro, and the arrest of a notorious member of the Black Hand named Attina, who is charged with the murder of the forest guard Rugolino, his wife and six children, in September last. The police had abandoned their investigation into the crime, being convinced that it would be impossible to capture the murderer in view of the protection given him by the Black Hand. The letter, which denounces other members of the Black Hand for whom the police are now searching, was apparently written by a member of the society who is seeking personal revenge.

SOUGHT SECLUSION

Indiana's Governor Hid Away While Writing Message.

Indianapolis, December 16.—Governor Marshall, after waiting until the Democratic members of the general assembly had had an opportunity to see him concerning proposed legislation, house organization, etc., deserted his office to work on his message to the general assembly. With a stenographer and an armful of documents, and with only his secretary, Mark Thistlewaite, knowing his temporary telephone number, he began his dictation.

The message, it is understood, will be short. Finance and the Democratic state platform are expected to occupy a prominent place in it, as will certain proposed legislation which the governor has been considering for some time.

The report of the legislative visiting committee is expected to be in the hands of the governor by December 20 in time for the findings of the committee to be included in the message.
